(a) Where a real estate licensee was subject to a real estate license discipline action filed by the Department prior to January 1, 2010, resulting in discipline in the form of a revocation and/or suspension, such discipline in itself shall not be the sole basis to deny the issuance of a mortgage loan originator license endorsement.

(b) Where a real estate licensee was subject to a real estate license discipline action filed by the Department on January 1, 2010, or later, resulting in a revocation, a suspension, a voluntary surrender of a real estate license, a public reproval, and/or a bar order, such discipline alone may be cause for denial of a subsequent mortgage loan originator license endorsement.

A felony conviction at any time in the applicant's personal history where such felony involved an act of fraud, dishonesty, a breach of trust, or money laundering is cause for denial of the application. These restrictions constitute a ban on the real estate licensee's ability to apply for a license endorsement. These restrictions are not subject to mitigation or rehabilitation.
